To Whom It May Concern:

Although designed specifically for wood shingles and shakes, Cedar Breather® can also be used as an acceptable underlayment for metal roofing including zinc, stainless steel, and titanium. Benjamin Obdyke Incorporated will warrant the product when installed according to published installation instructions with the substitution of metal roofing for wood shingles. Cedar Breather®'s limited warranty period is 50 years or shorter based on the warranty period of the metal roofing.

Similar to a metal roofing application with Cedar Breather®, Home Slicker® may also be used as an acceptable rainscreen for metal siding products including zinc, stainless steel, and titanium. Benjamin Obdyke Incorporated will warrant the product when installed according to published installation instructions with the substitution of metal roofing for other cladding systems including wood shingles and shakes, wood siding, fiber-cement siding, and vinyl siding. Home Slicker®'s limited warranty period is 50 years or shorter based on the warranty period of the metal siding product.
